PSAT® Course Overview

The PSAT/NMSQT® (or Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test) is a preliminary version of the SAT.

As you can imagine, the PSAT® helps prepare students to take the SAT® or ACT®, and a high score in the test can also open the door to National Merit Scholarships and other awards. With $180 million dollars in scholarships awarded to students who achieve high scores on the PSAT® in the US, how you perform on this exam could help you earn scholarship dollars that can change the direction of your college planning.

Recommended for...

- Students who wish to prepare for the test, or SAT®, in advance and to get higher score on those tests.
- Students who are not sure how to form an effective study plan
- Students who have made little progress studying by themselves or in other prep schools
- Students who need question-based tutoring

● PSAT® Prep Course Q&A

Q : Please tell me more about the PSAT®.

A: The PSAT is 2 hours and 45 minutes long and tests your skills in Reading, Writing, and Math. The highest score possible on the PSAT is 1520
 This test consists of THREE sections:

- Evidence-Based Reading (60 min) --- U.S./World Literature/Social Studies/History/Science
- Writing & Language (35 min) --- Expression of Ideas/Standard English conventions
- Math (25 min): No Calculator / (45 min): Calculator --- Heart of Algebra/Data Analysis & Problem Solving/Passport to Advanced Math/ Additional Topics in Math

Q : How can I see my PSAT® score?

A: The PSAT is scored on a 320 to 1520 range. Therefore, understanding your percentile ranking is a crucial part of understanding how you did: the higher the percentile ranking, the better you've done. You'll also have a sense of what you need to do to improve in the coming months before you take the SAT. To be accepted into the most competitive colleges in the US, you'll need to score near the top.

Q : Is a make-up lesson for one-time tutoring available?

A: Yes, but only once providing that you definitely let us know of your cancellation ONE DAY prior to the date of your tutoring by phone or by email.

Q : Are private lessons available?

A: One-time tutoring is a one-on-one private lesson. If you prefer additional private lessons, we can separately offer them to you at the rate of 15,120 JPY per 80 min. The private lesson schedule must meet both the student's needs and the instructor's capabilities. Private lessons are usually scheduled on Mon, Tue, and Wed and if available on weekends. Please feel free to contact the center director about the availability of instructors for your private lessons.

Q : Are seasonal intensive courses offered?

A: No, but if there are lots of requests, we will try to plan Spring, Summer, or Winter Intensive Courses.

Q : Does the Ochanomizu Center offer assistance when registering for the official PSAT®?

A: No. If the test is administered in your school, please ask your school teachers. Inquiries and/or requests for assistance for official test registration are not accepted by us. Please also refer to the official PSAT® website for any test information at <https://collegereadiness.collegeboard.org/psat-nmsqt-psat-10>.

Q : Where can I get the information about scholarship programs?

A: If you are interested in the National Merit® Scholarship, please visit <http://www.nationalmerit.org/> to see the Official Student Guide and the entry requirements. You can also get information about other scholarship programs in the website of The College Board®, where you will see whether you are eligible for those programs.
